A note from Joe

We had another successful bingo night at last month's meeting held at Alt-N-Bach's. The club had candles and two liter "Fusion" veggie drinks for prizes. Eighteen members attended our meeting. We finalized the plans for the Christmas party and started to lay the framework for next year's events.

I hope the weather holds out for our Christmas party. We have planned a really nice dinner. The club will pick up the cost of several items like tax, tip and an after dinner drink/dessert. The food will be plentiful and delicious. We have set the price for only $17.50 per person, so please consider joining us. It is a great deal and the evening should be a lot of fun. There are more details in the newsletter. I am looking forward to seeing everyone.

If anyone has any suggestions for next year's meetings, we will be taking ideas at the next few months as we put together next year's events.

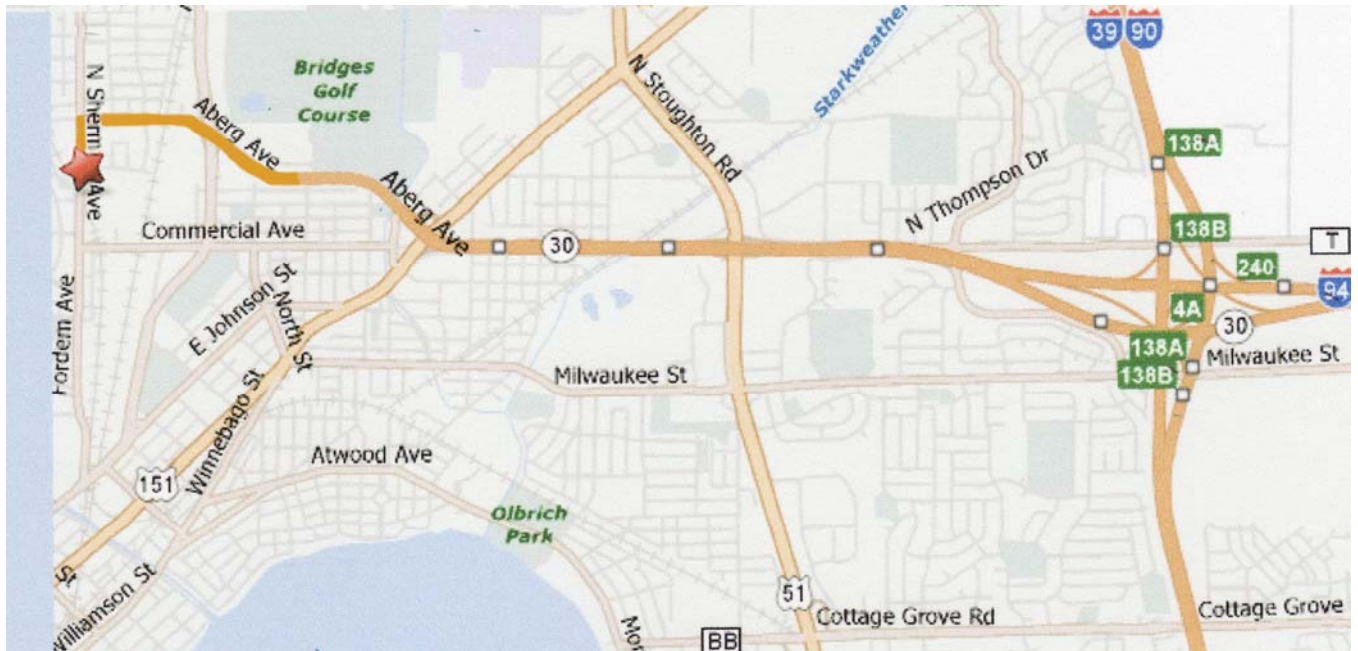

I will be spending the week of Thanksgiving in New Hampshire visiting my daughter. I am frantically putting together a short newsletter for December to mail out before I leave. If I wait until I get back I'm afraid with the increase of holiday mail the newsletters won't be received on time. I would like to apologize for the briefness of this month's newsletter.

See you at the Esquire Club, Joe.

Pictured above are Larry and Janet Fry and Jim Langdon holding their "trophies" won during our grueling Bingo competition last month at Alt-N-Bach's. We had a nice turn out for the meeting and had a lot of fun.

Christmas Party Directions

Exit onto Hwy 30 from the Interstate (from Milwaukee the Interstate runs into Hwy 30 and there is no need to exit). Hwy 30 will turn into Aberg Avenue and run right to Sherman Avenue. When you get to Sherman Avenue, turn left and go about one block and the Esquire Club will be on your left hand side. The address is 1025 Sherman Avenue.

Our menu for the party is an all you can eat family style dinner which includes two main dishes of baked chicken and roast pork. There will also be dressing, mashed potatoes, gravy, hot vegetable, coleslaw, bread and butter. Coffee, tea, milk or soda will be included. The club will also pay for a dessert or an after dinner drink. If you would like to have both a dessert and an after dinner drink, please add five dollars to your payment to Roger.
